

CALLING ALL STUDENTS

Calling All Career Starters, Changers, Advancers, and Professionals!
Be part of the change our communities deserve.

Join a dynamic healthcare professionals' training program offered by the District's only two Historically Black Colleges & Universities. Find your possible!

CRISP DC

The Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology

UNIVERSITY OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
1851

HOWARD UNIVERSITY

The Public Health IT4DC (PHIT4DC) Consortium Experiential Course provides D.C. high school students with 21st century IT knowledge and skills to provide the high-quality healthcare services ALL District residents deserve.

Healthcare Career STARTERS

Eligibility Criteria

- District resident
- At least 18 years*
- Students pursuing their HSD or GED

Healthcare Career CHANGERS

Eligibility Criteria

- At least 18 years*
- Students pursuing their HSD or GED
- Currently employed in any field

Healthcare Career ADVANCERS

Eligibility Criteria

- At least 18 years*
- Minimum HSD or GED
- Employed in an existing healthcare role

Healthcare Career PROFESSIONALS

Eligibility Criteria

- Currently interested in any degree-seeking pathway at Howard, UDC, or CUWMA institution

Watch a helpful video on the PHIT4DC program, see program information, requirements, industry-recognized certifications, and student incentives:

For more information: PHIT4DC@udc.edu | PHIT4DC.com

PHIT4DC

University of the District of Columbia / Howard University

Public Health Informatics Technology for the District of Columbia

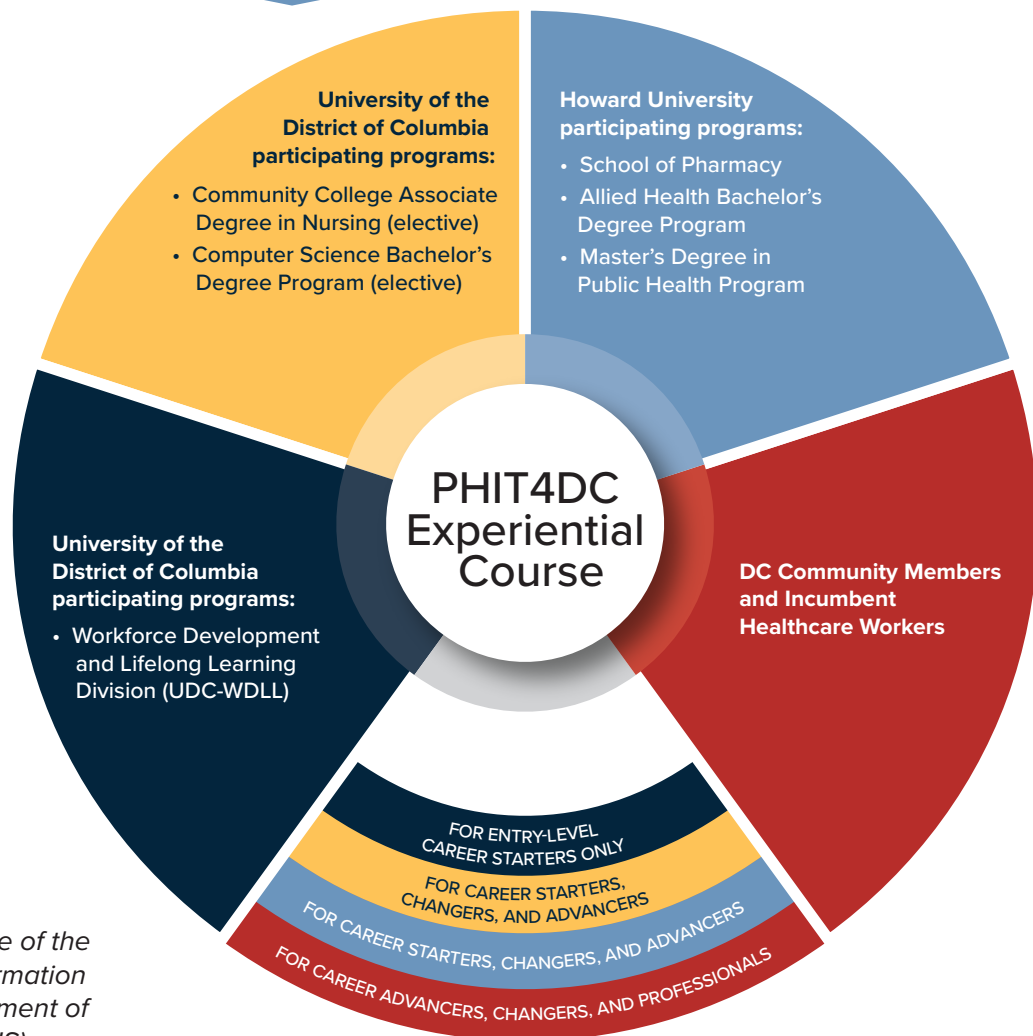

So How Does It Work?

PHIT4DC Experiential Course

- Offered every semester at the University of the District of Columbia and Howard University
- Gain acceptance into an associated degree program of your choice and/or earn industry-recognized certifications to bolster your career

SCAN FOR THE PROGRAM APPLICATION

This project is supported by the Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology (ONC) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

